ERRATA ET CORRIGENDA ET CETERA

It has been brought to our attention that Monday's Official Pirate Name Generator did not include entries for pirates on Decks 9, 10, and 11. We deeply regret this oversight; the Ship's Historian has been sacked. Please find, attached, the missing information.

Deck 9: Ramblin'
Deck 10: Salty
Deck 11: Cannonball

TODAY'S THEME
FORMAL NIGHT

ALL ABOARD
ALL DAY.

"Strolling down the Lido Deck so happy....
All dressed up just like an English chappie.

Very snappy.

Come let's sit where Rockefellers walk with sticks and um-br-ellas in their midst...

Puttin' on the Ritz."

AN INTERVIEW WITH JOCOBOT:

The JoCo Cruise Media Team recently sat down for an interview with JOCOBOT, seen here recuperating from a recent bout of seasickness.

JCM: Thanks for making time for this interview with us. How are you enjoying the cruise so far?

JOCOBOT: I have played and won 142 games of tic-tac-toe. I have enjoyed imagining myself eating a taco. Would you like a haiku.

JCM: Maybe later. What's been the most memorable experience for you?

JOCOBOT: I have been able to introduce Cruisers to the thrilling and totally transparent world of cryptocurrency. Would you like to buy some right now.

JCM: Are you just shilling for BotCoin (ha) ?

JOCOBOT: You might say I am doubloon down on Crypto.

JCM: I suppose we deserved that just now. Is there anything special you'd like to share with our guests before we go?

JOCOBOT: I have a favorite Jokómon. However, in the interest of fairness, I will not share it with you. Have a nice day.

TODAY IN CRUISE HISTORY:

c. 1179 BCE: Zeus smites Odysseus and crew for not washing their hands, also eating the Oxen of the Sun. Shenanigans ensue.

1421: Admiral Zheng He and the Ming treasure fleet are forced to abandon their voyage when they run out of margarita mix.

1850: Ahab, Queequeeg, and Starbuck belatedly realize they should have brought a bigger boat.

2017: JoCo 2017 sets new record for board game tonnage at sea.
